11 LESLIE JENSON,

12 Plaintiff,

13 vs.

14 JP MORGAN CHASE & CO.; and DOES 1
through 10, inclusive,

15 Defendant.

CASE NO. 08cv334-JLS (WMc)

ORDER RE: TELEPHONIC EARLY
NEUTRAL EVALUATION

16
17 On March 10, 2008, the Court received a letter from defendant's counsel in the above
18 captioned case requesting permission "for Chase's representative to appear by telephone pursuant 19 to Local Rule 16.1(c)1c." (Def's. Ltr of 03/10/08.) On March 12, 2008, plaintiff filed Objections to 20 Defendant's Ex Parte Request For Permission To Appear By Telephone At The ENE Conference.
21 Essentially, plaintiff objects to defendant's representative telephonic appearance because "[t]he 22 ENE Conference is very often not productive for settlement unless there is personal attendance of 23 the parties" and "Chase has given no extraordinary circumstances to be excused from personal 24 attendance. . . ." (Pl.'s Mtn at 3).

25 The Order issued by the Court on March 7, 2008, states in pertinent part, "[r]equests to be 26 excused from attendance for extraordinary circumstances must be in writing" [Docket No. 4.]
27 The Court construes this to mean that requests to be excused from any participation in the ENE
28 shall only be granted under extraordinary circumstances. In this case, it appears defendant's

1 representative is not seeking to be excused from attendance (i.e. participating in the ENE) but to be
2 excused from in person attendance. As noted, counsel for defendant intends to personally appear
3 and will have defendant's representative available by telephone. Therefore, the Court finds good
4 cause for allowing defendant's representative to participate telephonically in the ENE.

5 IT IS SO ORDERED.

6 DATED: March 27, 2008
